FACT SHEET 2018-2019

USUAL WORK LOAD

activities (such as in class meetings, seminars, practical work, independent activity, examinations, etc.) needed to achieve the targeted learning outcomes. In comparison, European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) describe study load of one academic year related to its learning outcomes. In most ECTS cases, study load of each student ranges from 1500 to 1800 hours for one academic year. While in ACTS, study load of each student ranges from 1152 to 2304 hours for one academic year (12 to 24 ACTS per semester). Thus an ECTS is equal to 25-30 hours while an ACTS is equal to 48 hours.

48 ACTS Per Year – 24 ACTS Per Term
